30 Day Devo Online -Holy Emotions

It's an incredible truth: You were strategically placed here, at this time in history, by God for His plans and purposes. He needed someone just like you to love the unlovable - to bring joy to a dark, cold world - to reveal peace in confusing conversations and situations - and to be kind at times when our culture is desolately cruel. God, the Creator of the Universe, needed someone just like you to be constantly optimistic in the face of frustrating circumstances - to hope when there was no reason for hope - and to show patience to obstinate and ornery people. Because God needed you, He created you to reveal His heart. The problem is, as His very own children, we have acquired too many genetic characteristics of the world and have forsaken the lavishly bestowed attributes of God, our loving Father. The problem is, we would rather have it our way than His way. The problem is, we would rather emote a selfish perspective on a situation than to exhibit delightful and delicious fruit.

We were created by God to reveal His heart during this singular moment in all of recorded time. We were created to do His good works but instead, we have decided to morph into an emotional counterfeit of who He intended for us to be. God created us because there was a lack of "Godness" on earth, and so He sent you and He sent me. God will only reveal Himself through us to the extent that we allow Him to fill every corner of our hearts and lives. The magnificent and heart-stopping truth is that you can have as much of God as you could possibly want! The question has never changed from the Garden of Eden until today, How much of Him do you want?

Malachi 3:1

"I will send my messenger, who will prepare the way before me.

Malachi and John the Baptist

Waiting is hard. While waiting we begin to imagine what the fulfillment will look like. We develop expectations. Malachi was the last prophet for over 400 years.

Matthew 3:1-2

"In those days John the Baptist came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea and saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near."

John the Baptizer was a transitional person. He stood between the two covenants. He announced that the Old laws should be kept and honored. He also announced that One was coming Who would fulfill the Old Covenant and institute a New Covenant.

This announcement offended the expectations of those waiting. Why change what we have been given? God was not giving reasons. He was making demands. He was calling.

Fulfillment always calls for repentance.

Things to remember:

Magi Boxes – This is one of our "outreaches" that we've done now for several years. This year our goal is to send 32 or more boxes. We need to ship them by October 1st so we need your generous donations given to Tammy or Brenda by Sept. 21st. Please support this good effort!

Don't forget to forward inserts or communications you'd like to include in the newsletter to Marie or Greg by Thursday if you'd like it to appear in Sunday's newsletter. The newsletter is now on our website prior to Sunday morning.
