The Sower Spreads the Word

The Scripture tells us God's word is very powerful. It will overcome any obstacle. It was by His word He created the universe. God simply spoke and it came into existence. He also says His word will always achieve His purpose. Isaiah 55:11 says, “...My Word that comes from My mouth will not return to me empty, but it will accomplish what I please, and will prosper in what I send it to do.” The Word of God is the creative power that achieves His purpose.

We find the story of the sower in Mark 4:1-9. When the sower spreads the word he is very indiscriminate. He spreads it everywhere. He is not concerned with preparation. He is only concerned with spreading this powerful seed. This seems very inefficient to us. What about preparation? What about making sure the soil is properly prepared? The sower is totally unconcerned with these methods. His task is only to spread the seed. His confidence is in the seed; the Word of the Living God.

This is very confusing to us. It seems very irresponsible. Aren't we called to prepare the soil and make sure the seeds are in good places? Aren't we called to be soil inspectors? This process the sower uses is counterintuitive to us.

It is clear from the parable that we are NOT called to be soil inspectors. We are just called to spread the Word. The power is in the Word; not in our presentation. The power is not in us. The power is in the Word of the Living God.

God will make His Word fruitful in any kind of soil. He is the powerful one. We are the faithful servants. Our task is merely to faithfully spread the seed; the Gospel, the Word of the Living God.

Die, Then Follow Me

Mark 8:31-36

“He then began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things...and that he must be killed and after three days rise again...Peter...began to rebuke him...Jesus turned...‘Get behind me, Satan!’...‘If anyone would come after me, he must deny himself, and take up his cross and follow me.’”

We can't jump to the “follow me” portion of this text without first denying ourselves and taking up our cross. The death to self is a daily choice that no one else can make but ourselves. It goes against our sinful nature to not put ourselves first, to not honor ourselves and to not preserve ourselves. Peter was rebuked for resisting this message and Jesus indicated the enemy of the “death to self” teaching was Satan himself. This heresy can be clothed in religious clothing as the “therapeutic gospel” or the “health and wealth” gospel – but it's still heresy. To follow Jesus is to die to self.

Jesus, I humble myself before you and die to self this day.

Show No Partiality

By David R. Ferguson

It is an undeniable truth that life is not fair. Oftentimes we see firsthand how those less qualified receive a job promotion, while those much more deserving are passed over. But just because the world is not fair does not give Christians permission to treat others unfairly. On the contrary, we have many passages of Scripture that teach otherwise.

James, the Lord's brother, teaches of the sin of partiality by showing how wrong it is to favor someone new to our assembly simply based upon the clothing one wears. He then states, "But if you show partiality, you are committing sin and are convicted by the law as transgressors" (James 2:9 [NAS]). James and the Apostle Paul both point out that we should model our lives and treat others as God does, by judging their actions righteously, and to do so without partiality. Paul writes in Romans 2:9-11 [NAS], <sup>9</sup> There will be tribulation and distress for every soul of man who does evil, of the Jew first and also of the Greek, <sup>10</sup> but glory and honor and peace to everyone who does good, to the Jew first and also to the Greek. <sup>11</sup> For there is no partiality with God.

The Prophet Micah sums it up nicely when he writes, "He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?" (Micah 6:8 [NAS])
